BLACK HAWK UP

We're guys. We like remote-controlled toys. Doesn't matter how old we're getting, we love this stuff. But it can get expensive. Not so with the Griffin HELO TC Touch-Controlled Helicopter, which can be had for less than 50 bucks! The flying part is even easier. Just download a free app from the iTunes Store and use your iPhone, iPad, iPod Touch or Android device to maneuver the twin-rotor, lightweight-metal helicopter all around your house. The HELO TC is the perfect indoor flying machine! The app also allows you to memorize and re-create your flight patterns. Time to take off. And if your girl bitches at you about buying another toy, remind her about the battery-operated gizmos she keeps in her nightstand. And those weren't free. Did we mention we have a HELO TC helicopter to give away? See details on this page.

SEX ON IE BEACH

Everyone fantasizes about having sex on a beach, but a little ill-placed sand can quickly turn passion into pain. One leading manufacturer has come up with a way to ensure that your waterfront romp (or any other activity) isn't an annoying experience. It's the CGear Sand-Free Rug, whose patented weave technology keeps sand, dirt or dust from invading your fun-even at the beach. BTW: CGear offers a wide variety of rugs, mats and blankets. Check out their Web site for details-right after you finish checking out the hot chick. And no, she's not included with any purchase. Sorry.

BOOMIN' BOX

You think you're old-school, fool? Did you use to carry around one of those giant tape player/radios called a Boombox or the now-notso-PC Ghetto Blaster? You did? Kick it! iHome is taking us all back to "back in the day" with its iP4 Portable FM Stereo Boombox for iPhone/iPad. Talk about hip. Although designed to look like something "straight outta Compton," the iP4 is packed with the latest high-end audio technology. It features a powerful amp, twin 4-inch woofers and a pair of tweeters to turn your party out. The iP4, which runs on six D batteries and is offered in either black or shocking pink, also features a magnetized remote control and an auxiliary jack. That means you can use iHome's iP4 Boombox with your PC, DVD player or bright-yellow Sony Walkman. Hey, that's old-school! Just kidding about the Walkman.
